ACHIEVEMENTS

I am most proud of my accessibility to new situations

I used to lack a tremendous amount of confidence, so much so that it caused me to let go on not assert any form of dominance in any situation or conversation. But once I improved my ability to welcome new situations in with open arms I found it much easier to relay my opinions and be fully honest with people. If you hire me I can promise you that I will always tell you how it is, I like to shoot straight.

STRENGTHS

★ Honesty

I've always believed in "Honest is the best policy" because if you are never honest and never confident in what you say to people then there is no point in even saying anything to begin with, this allows me to be straight forward and confident with my work and myself.

★ Good listener

due to being able to listen to conversations well I am able to provide a valuable input onto what to achieve further from the topic.

★ Strong Work ethic

I dedicate a high level of dedication and passion to my work and how to I achieve a high standard

★ Self Motivated

I can be greatly driven by

★ Customer Service

I learnt customer service due to containing the past four years of my life volunteering at Nexarda. This allows me to understand the business world with a finer grasp and take insults with a grain of salt.
